

Preserve Hiking Trails

Backcountry Hiking Trails

The preserve's backcountry hiking trails are open daily between 9 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. from the last Saturday in April through the last Sunday in October. From November through April, trails are open on weekends (weather permitting). Permits are required for the backcountry trails.

Scenic Overlook Trail – A 6.4-mile round-trip hike along the bus tour route to the scenic overlook area. Experience the beauty of native rolling prairie, as you take in the wide-open vistas of 1,490 feet above sea level.

3 Pasture Loop Trail – A 3.8-mile hike through upland prairie. This trail winds along existing ranch roads and a mowed path. From May through July, cattle graze here as they have for the past century.

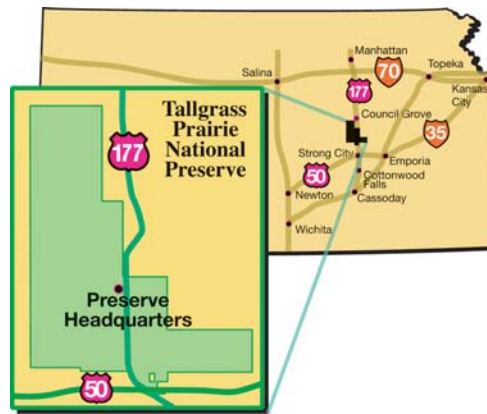

Red House Trail – A 6-mile hike through upland prairie and natural drainage areas. This trail passes through several historic ranching features, while giving an intimate view of wetland prairie flowers and vegetation through a scenic grove of cottonwood trees.

Frontcountry Nature Trails

The preserve's frontcountry nature trails are open year-round during daylight hours only. For visitor safety and resource preservation, we ask that visitors stay on the designated trails.

The Southwind Nature Trail – A 1 3/4-mile hiking trail through the tallgrass prairie, passing by the Lower Fox Creek School. Scenic overlook areas.

The Bottomland Trail – A 1/2 or 3/4-mile loop through bottomland prairie along Fox Creek. Wayside exhibits and information kiosks tell the story of the prairie restoration and cultural history. The trail is wheelchair accessible and offers a comfort station.

Location: The preserve headquarters is located:

- 2 miles north of Strong City on Kansas State Highway 177 (Flint Hills National Scenic Byway)
- 18 miles west of Emporia
- 16 miles south of Council Grove
- 85 miles northeast of Wichita

Hours: The historic ranch headquarters is open daily (except Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day) from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Brochures and a 10-minute site orientation video are available in the barn (May – October) and on the back porch of the house (November – April).

A self-guided tour of the historic ranch headquarters is available daily between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. A brochure and wayside exhibits tell the story of Stephen F. Jones, who owned the ranch from 1878 to 1888.

The bookstore/gift shop in the ranch house is open daily from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Visitors may purchase books for children and adults, prints, postcards, educational and hand-crafted gift items, natural objects, and items related to local culture.

While in Chase County, make time to visit the towns of Strong City and Cottonwood Falls. Steeped in prairie history, these scenic communities will take you back in time. They offer dining, shopping, and much more.
